

PROFESSIONAL DESIGN AWARDS

The CCFC Professional Design Awards are presented annually in conjunction with the California Community Colleges Chancellor's Office. In addition to outstanding architectural design, awards are given based on merit, honor and excellence. Each project recognized incorporates outstanding institutional features that enhance the community college learning environment. This year's awards presentation will be held during the General Session Luncheon, Tuesday, September 11, 2018.

AWARDS

PROJECT IN DESIGN – AWARD OF HONOR

Skyline College Environmental Science Building 12
San Mateo County Community College District
DES Architects & Engineers, XL Construction, and BCA

PROJECT IN DESIGN – AWARD OF MERIT

Cañada College Kinesiology and Wellness Center
San Mateo County Community College District
Blach Construction and ELS Architecture & Urban Design

MODERNIZATION – AWARD OF MERIT

Antelope Valley College - Palmdale Center
Antelope Valley Community College District
Kruger Bensen Ziemer Architects

GROWTH – AWARD OF EXCELLENCE

Santa Barbara City College West Campus Center
Santa Barbara Community College District
Kruger Bensen Ziemer Architects

GROWTH – AWARD OF EXCELLENCE

Culinary Arts Academy and District Office Building
Riverside Community College District
LPA, Inc.

GROWTH – AWARD OF HONOR

Mission College Student Engagement Center
West Valley-Mission Community College District
Lionakis

CAMPUS COMPLETION – AWARD OF EXCELLENCE

Henry W. Coil Sr. and Alice Edna Coil School for the Arts
Riverside Community College District
LPA, Inc.

JURY

Ida A. Clair, AIA, LEED®AP BD+C, CASp
Principal Architect
Division of the State Architect

Christine D. Miktarian, P.E.
Vice Chancellor,
Operations & Information Systems
State Center CCD

Ronnie G. Slimp
College Finance and
Facilities Planning Division
California Community Colleges
Chancellor's Office

CCFC would like to thank all of the firms that submitted projects for consideration and the jury for their service.