

CCFC Regional Workshops

Community College Construction Delivery Methods: Options, Obligations, and Opportunities

BAY AREA

Friday, May 12, 2017

9:00 am to 2:30 pm

XL Construction Office – Training Room

851 Buckeye Court

Milpitas, CA 95035

AGENDA

- 9:00 am Welcome and Opening Remarks
- 9:15 am CCFC Update: 2017-18 State Capital Outlay Funding
Rebekah Cearley, Community College Facility Coalition
- 9:30 am Delivery Methods Primer
- The Legal Perspective: Delivery Method Authorization and Legal Issues
Mark W. Kelley, Dannis Woliver Kelley
 - The Construction Manager's Perspective: Delivery Method Benefits and Considerations
Steve Winslow, XL Construction
Monet Crowley, XL Construction
Jack Herbert, Swinerton Management and Consulting
 - The District Perspective: Selecting the Right Delivery Method
Leigh Sata, Santa Rosa Junior College
 - The Architect's Perspective: Encouraging Collaborative Project Delivery
Karen Kuklin, Gensler
- 10:15 am Break
- 10:30 am Delivery Methods Primer, Continued
- 11:30 am The Chancellor's Office Perspective: State Funding and Delivery Methods
Harold Flood, California Community Colleges Chancellor's Office
- 12:00 pm Lunch
- 1:00 pm The Evolution Toward Progressive Design-Build at San Mateo County CCD:
The Skyline Environmental Services Building Project Case Study
Chris Strugar-Fritsch, San Mateo County Community College District
Erin Allred, XL Construction
Craig Ivancovich, DES Architects + Engineers
Tay Othman, DES Architects + Engineers
- 2:15 pm Q&A
- 2:30 pm Evaluations & Adjourn